

Ready for the Season

We are on the web!

Full information about The LINKS is available at http://www.suetinnish.com/index_files/Page1593.html

Do Balls Matter?

Balls with "hot" cores and middle layers along with seamless covers promise to go farther and straighter than ever. See a list and review of golf balls on The LINKS resource page at http://www.suetinnish.com/index_files/Page1703.html

Do you think balls matter? Send us your comments and thoughts and we will publish them.

Family Golf

If you plan to golf with children or grandchildren, Golf for Women magazine just ranked the 25 Best Family Golf Resorts. In the Midwest, they selected Grand Traverse Resort & Spa in Acme, MI.

Paula Wagasky will be teaching all of our '07 golf clinics. Paula enjoys working with women to help them better understand the game and themselves as golfers. She has been a member of the LPGA Teaching and Club Professional Division since 1978 and was the recipient of the 1991 LPGA National Award for Golf Professional of the year.

Paula's playing experience includes five years on the WPGA and numerous amateur titles in the Middle Atlantic Region. Paula has been teaching golfers at the Buffalo Grove Golf Club for over 21 years.

You won't want to miss the opportunity to improve your game amidst the camaraderie of The LINKS. Send your registration/membership fees to Sue Tinnish at 1415 N. Salem Blvd. Arlington Heights IL 60004-4545. Please make checks payable to SEAL Inc.

DATE CHANGE. We had originally scheduled our social Night Golf for June 9. However, it conflicted with a charity event that past member Karen Emanuelson has organized in memory of her son. The event held in conjunction with The Hemophilia Foundation of Illinois is a bowling event in Arlington Heights. If you would like details, contact Karen at kje-manuelson@comcast.net.
